Rupert Brooke

1914, and other Poems

This is a volume of poems by Rupert Brooke, named after the famous poems "1914", written during and about World War I. Brooke himself died while taking part in a naval expedition to the Dardanelles in 1915, and was buried in Greece. The poems he wrote during the war were published posthumously and are the poems for which he is best-known today. This volume also contains poems written during a journey around the Pacific, and a number of miscellaneous poems. - Summary by Carolin

Read by Jael Baldwin; Lucy Perry; Peter Yearsley; Anusha Iyer; Larry Wilson; Ian King. Total running time: 1:01:40
